Author Attestation, License for Publishing CC BY, Financial Disclosure, and Permissions for Acknowledgements

As part of the submission process, all authors must sign this form attesting to the statements below.

Manuscripts will not be sent for peer review until this form—with physical signatures from all authors—is submitted. Failure to submit an appropriately completed attestation and licensing form will delay manuscript processing and may result in immediate rejection.

You may use more than one signature page. Machine signatures will not be accepted.

Upload the form with your manuscript at the Ochsner Journal ScholarOne submission portal:
<https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/toj>.

Authorship Attestation. I certify that I have participated sufficiently in the conception and design of this work, as well as the writing of the manuscript, to take public responsibility for it. I have reviewed the final version of the submitted manuscript and approve it for publication. Neither this manuscript nor one with substantially similar content under my authorship has been published or is being considered for publication elsewhere.

License for Publishing CC BY. If your submission is accepted by the Ochsner Journal, it will be available open access under the terms and conditions of the Creative Commons Attribution License (CC BY) that permits use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided that the work is properly cited. If your submission is not accepted, you are free to submit the work to any other journal from any other publisher. However, nothing in this licensing agreement permits dual submission or dual publication in violation of journal ethical practices.

Financial Disclosure. I certify that I have no financial conflicts that need disclosing.

Any author who has a financial involvement with any organization or entity with a financial interest in or in financial competition with the subject matter or materials discussed in the manuscript should disclose that affiliation. Examples of financial involvement include employment, stock holdings, consultancies, financial support of research through grants or contracts, participation in a speakers' bureau, provision of expert testimony, or receipt of honoraria. All authors should prepare a statement revealing any such financial affiliations and include it with the manuscript submission. The manuscript should also clearly identify any financial support of the research described in the manuscript.

By signing this form, I agree to the CC BY licensing agreement; certify authorship, originality of this work, and disclosure of all financial conflicts; and declare that a work with substantially similar content has not been published elsewhere and is not under consideration by any other publication.
