UPCOMING EVENTS:
JANUARY 11, 2024 (THURSDAY): GO ANNUAL HOLIDAY CELEBRATION
Baton Rouge Marriott 5500 Hilton Ave, Baton Rouge, LA 70808
Keynote Speaker: Retired Lt. General Russel Honoré is a decorated 37-year army veteran, a global authority on leadership, disaster management, and climate preparedness. As the commander of Joint Task Force Katrina, he became known as the “Category 5 General" for his leadership in coordinating military relief efforts in post-hurricane New Orleans. General Honoré knows that the future of our national security depends on protecting our environment, and he’s fighting for a brighter future for us all. A Louisiana native, he founded the GreenARMY, a coalition of environmental experts and advocates, to protect against pollution while fighting climate change and the natural disasters it causes. Menu Includes House Salad, Chicken Piccata, Mash Potatoes, Seasonal Vegetables, and Cheesecake for dessert. Personal Transportation.
10:30am – 2:30pm Limit of 110 Attendees $40pp

We are interested in starting a Game Day to be held at Ochsner 65Plus. The event will be held weekly, biweekly or once a month depending on your response. The time and day can be determined by the response to this event. Card playing, scrabble, or whatever you recommend for Game Day. We will provide the coffee, snacks, games, cards, and the tables. All you need to do is come for the fun! Call the office or email Cassie to let us know if you’re interested. Let us know ideas on day/time and your favorite game suggestions.

Any member interested in teaching line dancing? Contact Cassie for additional details.
